RE: Speaking Invitation
 World Affairs Council of Philadelphia
 Philadelphia, PA
 19, 23, or 24 February 1988

Program Director of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia, Craig Snyder, has invited you to speak at one of the four segments in their "Luncheon Subscription Series" in Philadelphia on 19, 23 or 24 February. The proposed format is 20-25 minutes of remarks followed by 30 minutes of Questions and Answers. Since Mr. Snyder attended the Federalist Society meeting on November 7th, he suggests that you repeat the remarks that you made at that event. You could expect an audience of approximately 600 business, professional, and civic leaders from the Philadelphia area. Media coverage would be at our request. Proceeds from this series are used to support the Council's nationally acclaimed program of education in world affairs for students at the elementary and secondary levels in the public, private, and parochial schools of Philadelphia.

Since the Luncheon Subscription series is a fund raiser, albeit a good cause, I believe that we should stick to our policy of not participating in charitable events. If you agree, attached is a letter of regret for your signature.

The Honorable William Webster
Director
Central Intelligence Agency
Washington, D.C. 20505

Dear Judge Webster:

I had the opportunity and the distinct pleasure to be in attendance at the luncheon of the Federalist Society on November 7. I write to tell you that your presentation was both thoughtful and thought-provoking and to ask if you might consider repeating your remarks for members of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

As you may know, the Council in Philadelphia is the leading public affairs forum in this part of the country. In our four decades of bringing the world to America's birthplace, we have been pleased to present Presidents Reagan, Carter, Nixon and Johnson; Vice Presidents Bush, Mondale, and Rockefeller; and world leaders including Corazon Aquino, Willy Brandt and Giscard D'Estaing.

The program we would like to plan in your honor is one of four segments in our "Luncheon Subscription Series". These events regularly attract an audience of more than 600 business, professional, and civic leaders of our area. Proceeds from this series are used to support the Council's nationally acclaimed program of education in world affairs for students on the elementary and secondary levels in the public, private, and parochial schools of our area.

The following is an outline of the schedule for such a program:

11:15 a.m. Reception in your honor.
12:00 p.m. Luncheon
12:45 p.m. Your remarks of twenty to twenty five minutes, followed by questions from the audience.
1:45 p.m. Adjournment. Conclusion of the Council's portion of your day.

We will, of course, be happy to arrange for your transportation requirements and overnight accommodations, should you so desire.

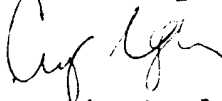

P-309-1R

The Honorable William Webster
November 13, 1987

May I suggest the dates of February 19, 23 or 24 for your consideration. If these are not convenient, I would be happy to propose alternates.

Many thanks for your consideration of this request. I look forward to hearing your remarks from the podium of the World Affairs Council of Philadelphia.

Sincerely,

Craig Snyder
Program Director
